Thurſday, July 28. 1720.

Stockholm, July 19.

ON the 17th Inſtant Proclamation was made with Sound of Trumpet for diſſolving the Aſſembly of the States, who accordingly ſeparated Yeſterday. The Clergy, the Burghers, and the Peaſants, were for continuing the Seſſions ſome time longer, in order to make certain Repreſentations concerning the Privileges of the Nobility, which they pretend ought to be regulated otherwiſe than they are at preſent: For the Nobility inſiſt, that the Privileges granted to their Order by Queen Chriſtina, be confirmed to them; but this is oppoſed by the ſaid other three Orders of the Kingdom, who will allow them no others than what they enjoyed in the Time of King Charles X. They have been promiſed by the Court, that this Difference ſhall be adjuſted on another Occaſion. On the other Hand, the Clergy have been endeavouring this Seſſion to obtain the ſame Privileges and Rank with the Nobility, but they have met with ſuch Oppoſition on the part of the latter, that they miſcarried in their Deſign.

Warſaw, July 20. The Republick's Ambaſſadour has written to this Court from Peterſbourg, that the Czar's Miniſters have communicated to him a Draught relating to the Reſtitution of Livonia limited with many Clauſes, at the End of which they offered to enter into a new Treaty with the Republick; but that the ſaid Ambaſſadour has anſwered that he is ordered to inſiſt on the Reſtitution of that Province without any Conditions, and that as to the Treaty by them propoſed, it was to no purpoſe, before the Republick ſaw the Performance of [illegible] It is adviſed from [illegible] that Prince [illegible]nio, the Ruſſian Governour of that Place, has iſſued a Proclamation, whereby the Nobility [illegible]ered in caſe of an Invaſion from Sweden to retire from the Coaſt into the Country, and to take Care not be in a Condition of ſerving the [illegible] but to reſign in the Deſ[illegible] of their Sove-

Copenhagen, July [illegible] Inſtant arrived here from Stra[illegible]ſica [illegible] of the Treaty of Peace [illegible]own and that of Sweden. M. Wei[illegible]r of Stade, went on the 17th on Board the Frigate for Stralſund, to evacuate that Place and the Iſland of Rugen to the Swediſh Commiſſaries. Five Companies of the Danish Garriſon [illegible]Marſtrand are already marched to Norway, and the Compa[illegible]nies remaining there are to follow, [illegible]n as the Swediſh Commiſſaries, whoare expected from Stockholm, have taken Poſſeſſion of that Fortreſs. It is ſaid Prince Dolhorucki the Ruſſian Ambaſſadour here has proteſted by word of Mouth againſt the Concluſion of this ſeparate Peace, but was anſwered, that the Czar his Maſter having agreed on a Negociation with the Swediſh Plenipotentiaries in the Iſle of Aland without the Knowledge of the King and even with the Exclu[illegible] Miniſter at Peterſbourg, his Danish Majeſty [illegible] Reaſon to [illegible]

Dantzick, July 30. On Sunday the [illegible]th Inſtant, [illegible]d ſolemn Proceſſion [illegible]ſee of the [illegible]t of Miracles was perfor[illegible]e with no leſs Magnificence than the former. The Marqueſs de Prié aſſiſted at [illegible] Solemnity alſo.

Paris, Aug. 3 [illegible]he Affair of the Conſtitution appears more ent[illegible]ed than ever. It is true, the Inſtrument of Ac[illegible]modation between the Biſhops on both Sides, is actually in the Preſs in the Royal Printing-Houſe, and ſeveral Thouſands of Copies are ready: It is alſo ſaid, that the King's Letters Patents have already paſſed the Seals, for ordering the contending Parties to accept of it, and to forbid all Appeals on that Account to a future Council; but no further Mention is made of the ſaid Inſtrument's being to be publiſhed, nor of the ſending the Letters Patents to the Parliament at Pontoiſe to be regiſtred, [illegible]hen: On the contrary, Cardinal de Noailles has put a Stop to the printing of his Body of Doctrine, which though by him intended for cementing an Union in the Gallican Church, yet may prove the Occaſion of widening the Breach ſtill more. Some of the appealing Biſhops having excepted againſt certain Poſitions in the ſaid Syſtem, the Cardinal altered them, in order to perſwade them to joyn in the Accommodation, but this being done after the Biſhops who favour the Conſtitution had approved of it, the latter now retract, ſaying, that this is not the Body of Doctrine to which they agreed, and many of them are gone into their Dioceſſes, without taking Leave of the Cardinal. The Abbot Fleury, the King's Confeſſor, being of great Age, has deſired Leave to retire to his Priory of Argenteuil, where he intends to finiſh his Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory together with the Remainder of his Days.
